

TOO MANY EFFORTS AT SHAME ECONOMY

Time for Congress to Quit Tinkering With Tariff for Political Effect.

PLEDGES STILL UNFULFILLED

Caustic Speech of Colonel Watson Before Drainage Congress Arouses Enthusiasm.

New Orleans, La., April 11.—An immediate gathering of the friends of national drainage projects in Washington to further the interests of the States interested in the National Drainage Congress was urged by Senator Francis G. Newlands of Nevada, in his address to-day before the congress, in session here. Added impetus was given to the general subject of drainage and the work outlined by the congress in the other addresses delivered. Congressman Joseph E. Ransfield, of Louisiana, president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, and Colonel J. J. Watson, Commissioner of Agriculture of South Carolina, created enthusiasm with their appeals to the delegates and officers of the congress to carry out the right reventially for Federal recognition. After commenting on the large attendance at the congress, Colonel Watson said:

"Much of it all is the making of a home and farm upon the land, and it is well known that the backbone of this great nation is made of the farmers of this country. If this national government can put water on land that is crying for water, it can certainly take water off land that has too much. Let us seek legislation along sound common sense lines; let Congress stop tinkering with the tariff, and let us take the tariff merely for political effect and solely for the purpose of getting back into office, and do something that will bring real benefit to our people."

Congressman Ransfield, speaking of the present condition of the Mississippi River, took occasion to state a statement recently made that Louisiana was in danger of being flooded.

Senator Newlands, in beginning his address, brought applause from the delegates when he read from the platform of both political parties the promises contained in each regarding drainage and reclamation.

"It is time," said he, "for Congress to stop its tinkering at the economy in order to make a showing at the next election."

Continuing, Senator Newlands advocated that the executive committee of the drainage congress and other similar organizations should go at once to Washington and tell what the nation wants.

"What is this drainage Congress asking for?" he said. "Nothing more than the Democratic and Republican parties have promised. Let these committees show the party leaders that here is a pledge yet unfulfilled. The Roosevelt policy is the same policy we are contending for to-day."

Senator Newlands ended the delegates that the Democratic and Republican parties have promised to carry out in power in the House for some time and that this pledge of conservation was still unperformed.

"I propose," he continued, "that Mr. Clark be made guardian of this pledge and impressed with the fact that the party cannot go into the next election with an unperformed promise."

Stereotyped lectures to-night by G. C. East and W. E. Monroe, of Louisiana, and M. G. Leitch, of the United States Geological Survey, Washington, ended the day's program.

BLIND BOY DIES OF INJURIES

Staunton, Va., April 11.—Falling from the stone abutment of the bridge over the Valley Railroad tracks back of the Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind yesterday afternoon, a distance of twenty-five feet or more, a partially blind pupil, sustained a fracture of the skull and a broken arm. He was removed to a hospital and the fractures set, but he died last night. He was the son of Mrs. Mary Jane Jones, of Saltville, Mo., was taking a walk in company with two other pupils. The school forbids walking on the railroad, but it seems to have a fascination for the pupils of this school, more than one of whom have met accidents by violating the rule. The body will be taken home for burial.

Prominent county people are involved in a suit for alienation of the affections of a wife. W. H. Stone, a well known farmer, residing near Hermitage, has sued S. O. Page, another well-known and wealthy farmer, of the same section, for $3,000 damages for alienating Stone's wife, and for the same reason. The suit has been instituted in the Circuit Court by Attorney Timberlake and Nelson. Mrs. Stone has three small children.

Suit Against Jack Johnson. Chicago, April 11.—The heavyweight champion pugilist to-day was made defendant in a suit for $1,500 filed by George Little, his former manager. According to the complaint, the suit grew out of the loss of a diamond ring to Johnson.

Men's Spring Suits In a Diversity of Styles

VARIETY is an important feature of our assemblage of Spring Suits for men. You will find no restriction placed upon your choice of whatever particular model, fabric or color your fancy suggests. In the assortment offered you will scarcely fail to secure the one garment which meets your individual idea of what a Spring Suit should be.

All Berry-made.

Prices from $15 to $35

O. H. Berry & Co.

BOUND BY UNIT RULE, BUT UNINSTRUCTED

WHEATLEY HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Accused Post-Office Clerk Waives Preliminary Hearing. 'Bond Increased.

Alexandria, Va., April 10.—Harry L. Wheatley, a mailing clerk at the city post-office, accused of rifling a decoy letter containing a check for $1,000, was held for the grand jury before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett, entered a plea of not guilty, and through his attorney, Charles E. Corgan, waived the formality of a preliminary hearing, and was held for the action of the grand jury. Wheatley's bond was then increased from $1,000 to $2,000, Dr. E. Gorman becoming his surety.

The accused, when arraigned, in addition to waiving a hearing, added that he had no statement to make. His attorney asked that he be allowed to see the money alleged to have been taken from the letter in question. Inspector Robertson stated that before so doing he would be compelled to obtain permission from the Attorney-General, and then he would be glad to do so and give what assistance he could.

WILLIAMS ASKED TO RUN FOR BOARD

Pressure is being brought to bear on Dr. Ennon G. Williams, State Health Commissioner, to allow the use of his name as a candidate for the Administrative Board. The matter has been mentioned to him, and it is understood that a concerted effort will be made to secure his candidacy.

Dr. Williams said last night that he has been so busily engaged with matters connected with the office which he holds that he had given the question of membership on the Administrative Board no consideration whatever. He was therefore not in position to indicate what his answer will be to those who wish him to enter the race.

He has had intimate acquaintance with the city's affairs as a member of the City Council. He then led the fight for the establishment of a City Health Department, and was active in other things. As State Health Commissioner, Dr. Williams has made a record which is a matter of comment with public health people all over the United States.

Candidates for the board, whose presence in the ring has been made public within the past few days, and who are actively at work, are: Henry P. Beck, Building Inspector; E. C. Folkes, State Senator; Carlton McCarthy, State Accountant; J. Taylor McCarthy, Jr., Graham B. Hobson, William Zimmerman, A. W. Bennett, John Hirschberg, Charles F. Taylor, Marx Gunst and Charles E. Richards.

The four delegates-at-large who, with the eighty-six congressional district delegates, will go to Baltimore are Governor John A. Dix, United States Senator James A. O'Gorman, Alton B. Parker and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall.

The platform was adopted without any speeches being made for or against it, and without one vote in opposition.

Charters Issued. The Dumps, Electric Bottle Company (Inc.), Carrie, Va. Albert Breeding, president; J. P. LaFlore, vice-president; Rosa Breeding, secretary and treasurer; and Carrie, Va. Object: Mercantile business.

Traylor Manufacturing Company (Inc.), Washington, Va. J. S. Traylor, president; P. D. Baker, vice-president; J. S. White, secretary and treasurer—all of Washington, Va. Capital: Maximum, $5,000; minimum, $2,500. Object: Manufacturing overalls.

West Shore Navigation Company, Norfolk, Va. G. S. Briggs, president; H. C. Johnson, vice-president; W. T. Day, secretary and treasurer. Capital: Maximum, $5,000; minimum, $2,500. Object: Operate a steamboat line from Norfolk to the western shores of Chesapeake Bay.

Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday in the office of the clerk of the Hustings Court: John Henry Parkins and Pamela Goode Penick; Harry Pincusky of Philadelphia, and Anne Levin, of Richmond.

CITY COUNCILMEN COME TO VIRGINIA

At Natural Bridge They Will Make Up Chicago Committees.

TWO OBJECTS IN THEIR VISIT

One Is to Work in Quiet; Other to See the Old Dominion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Chicago, Ill., April 11.—Aldermen Anton J. Cermak, John A. Richard and August Krumholz, Democrats, and Lewis D. Blitts, William F. Lippe and Albert J. Fisher, Republicans, City Council Slate Committee, left Chicago this afternoon for Natural Bridge, Va., to make up the twenty-four standing committees of the City Council. With them went nine newspaper men. Several of the Aldermen and writers are accompanied by their families.

Alderman Cermak, before leaving, said: "We want to get away from politics. We also want to see Virginia. Every true American should, if he is able, visit that great old State, which has contributed so much to the glory of this country—in fact, made it possible. We shall visit Washington, Lynchburg, Richmond and Norfolk after our stop at Natural Bridge."

The Aldermen expect to remain away for two weeks, and their purpose of purpose of their departure from the city is to "rest up," the real reason is their desire to remove themselves from the sphere of personal solicitation by Aldermen during certain committee appointments.

This year the City Council has an overwhelming Democratic majority—forty-five Democrats to twenty-four Republicans—and the former feel that preference should be given in the selection of the more important committees.

In carrying out the nonpartisan idea the committee is supposed to be disassociated from all political connections, but this has never been possible, and it is believed will not be this year.

DR. CALHOUN INJURED.

Professor at William and Mary Falls and Breaks His Arm.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Williamsburg, Va., April 11.—In the act of entering a business place here this morning, Dr. John C. Calhoun, professor of modern languages in William and Mary, tripped and fell, bringing his left arm near the shoulder. The injured man, who had been moved to his hotel, the fracture in a bad one. Dr. Calhoun, a relative of the great statesman of that name, came here last fall from Florida, and he is a native of South Carolina.

Dr. T. J. Stubbs, professor of mathematics in William and Mary, will not meet his classes any more this session, owing to sickness. Professor Tyler will have charge of the department of mathematics, being the assistant. Dr. Stubbs is improving, and is able to get out.

After a shutdown of nearly two years, the Williamsburg Knitting Mill resumed operations today in the carding room. As fast as possible other departments will be put in operation, and in ten days the plant will be in full operation.

Milady's Toilet Table

By Mme. D'MILLE

Many women whose upper lips and cheeks are free from that downy growth that humiliates some women, are embarrassed wearing short sleeves because of the hair on their forearms. Such women can easily and quickly remove it by applying delicate powder to the hair, and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone.

Nine times out of ten when a woman looks old before her time she has neglected her complexion. Dissolve in a glass of water a small original package of Mayatone and gently rub a little on face, neck and arms, and she will be delighted with results. Use this daily instead of powder or other cosmetics and the skin will be smooth, soft and satiny. Mayatone cleanses and restores youthful loveliness of skin.

When a woman does not care to risk catching cold washing her head she can get splendid results by dry shampooing. Put a cupful of corn meal (or four ounces of powdered orris root) in a fruit jar, add the contents of a small original package of Mayatone and shake well together. Sprinkle a little on the head and brush the hair with the fingers, and the growth of hair and makes a beautiful, fully lustrous, glossy and fluffy.

No toilet table is complete without a jar of Mayatone. It is a sovereign remedy for chaps, cold sores, pimples, eczema and skin eruptions, and burns, scalds and long-standing sores. It is antiseptic as well as healing and lessens danger of blood poisoning.

ALL

that is GOOD FOR THE EYES supplied by us. Prescription work our specialty with complete manufacturing plant on the premises. Headquarters for

KODAKS

Artistic Developing and Printing. Mail orders receive prompt attention. Lowest charges in all cases.

The S. CALESKI Optical Co.

Main and Eighth Sts., 223 East Broad

Next to Corner

Remarkable Sworn Statement of a New Brunswick Druggist.

Have sold your Swamp-Root for twenty-eight years and have known its valuable curative qualities for the past twenty years. For kidney, liver and bladder troubles I have never known a single case where it has failed to relieve and cure. Right in my own household Swamp-Root cured my wife of catarrh of the bladder, while it cured me of liver and bladder troubles.

Numerous cases have come under my personal observation which have made me very enthusiastic about recommending Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to any one suffering from kidney, liver and bladder troubles, and I have the greatest confidence in its merits. Have never heard any customer who have given Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a trial speak of it but in the highest terms.

Yours respectfully,
JOS. F. BRADLEY, Druggist,
172 Hamilton St., New Brunswick, N. J.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 16th day of July, A. D. 1909.
JAS. H. VAN CLEEF,
Notary Public.

Letter to
Dr. Kilmer & Co.,
Binghamton, N. Y.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You. Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince any one. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing be sure and mention the Richmond Daily Times-Dispatch. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

MARKET DEPENDS ON SPECULATION

Committee Told That Demoralization Would Follow Abolition of Cotton Exchanges.

Washington, April 11.—George W. Neville, president of the New York Cotton Exchange, defended that institution to-day against the anticipation bills pending before the House Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Neville declared that the privilege of hedging and dealing in contracts to maintain the equilibrium of the cotton market is a necessary condition to a free market at all times of the year. He said he thought the bills would mean the abolition of cotton exchanges and the consequent demoralization of the cotton industry in the United States.

Howard Ayers, president of the China-Japan Trading Company, spoke against the bills. He argued that if cotton men were not permitted to deal in futures the cotton market would fluctuate violently.

George Rembert, of Columbia, S. C., lawyer, admitted that he was a cotton speculator "pure and simple," and that while he raised cotton, he went into the cotton market to "take a speculator." He said it was the speculative class that kept the market active.

"Do you believe in gambling?" he was asked.

"That's a matter of opinion," said Mr. Rembert. "I'll bet on a horse race and I do not think it is a crime to do so."

L. R. Brooks, of Augusta, Ga., a cotton broker, also spoke against the bill.

GOOD ROADS MEETING IS HELD AT STAFFORD

Effort to Increase Sentiment in Proposed Bond Issue—Blacksmiths Hadly Hurt.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Fredericksburg, Va., April 11.—A large good roads meeting was held to-day at Stafford Courthouse in the interest of the election on the question of issuing $100,000 bonds for the permanent improvement of the highways of Stafford county. The election was only called a few weeks ago, and the advocates have been industriously working up sentiment in behalf of the bond issue. A large number of citizens of Fredericksburg attended the meeting to-day, especially members of the Business Men's Association, which appointed a special committee to attend and mingle with the citizens and endeavor to persuade as many of them as possible who are opposed to the bond issue to change their view. The Business Men's Association appropriated $15 towards the dinner given by the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the citizens of the town were furnished free to the dinner by Stafford. While there is some dissatisfaction as to the distance to be improved on different roads, it is believed that the bond issue will carry. Among those who delivered addresses was Highway Commissioner P. St. Julien Wilson.

C. H. McWhirt, a well-known blacksmith at Spotsylvania Courthouse, while choosing a horse yesterday belonging to William Johnson, met with a very serious accident. The horse suddenly fell, catching Mr. McWhirt's leg under him, breaking both bones in the arm between the wrist and elbow.

Judge R. H. J. Clibb, of the Circuit Court of Stafford county, has appointed Herman C. Baker as county surveyor for that county.

Caroline County Camp of Confederate Veterans has elected Captain C. T. Smith and T. D. Coshill as delegates to the Grand reunion of Confederate veterans to be held at Macon, Ga., in May.

The Democrats of Caroline county will hold a mass-meeting at Bowling Green on Monday, May 13, to elect delegates to the State Democratic Convention, to be held at Norfolk May 29.

FAILS OF QUORUM

No Action Is Taken on Offer of Memorial Hospital.

The joint subcommittee from the Committee on Health of the House and the Committee on Finance, to which was referred the offer of the Charlotte Williams Corporation to turn over the Memorial Hospital to the city under certain conditions, failed of a quorum yesterday, and has been called by Chairman Grundy for this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The three members from the Finance Committee, Messrs. Grundy, Reade and Richards, were present. The three members from the Committee on Health of the House, Messrs. Hirschberg, Miller and Atkinson, failed to show up.

HARMON SAFE OLD CARRIAGE HORSE

Conservative Democrats Believe He-Is Good Candidate to Tie To.

HIS SUPPORTERS LOYAL

This Is True Particularly of Older Men in the Party.

Washington, April 11.—It has been said, and very rightly, that political majorities have no permanent abiding place. A landslide in one direction one year may swing back the opposite direction the next one. And it is equally true that the friends of politicians are also frequently shifting in their loyalty. The mass of voters is looking keenly for the man who is likely to win, no matter what may be his aspirations.

The present campaign for the presidency has not been different from many that have preceded it and many that will follow in the future. There is one very remarkable feature in connection with it, however, and that is the friends of all the Democratic candidates are whooping up the men of their choice, it is probable that, aside from political affiliations, there is more real, sincere admiration for Governor Harmon than for any other candidate. An example of this fact, no later than to-day, a well-known member of the House, Representative Lamb, of Virginia, expressed the opinion that he was still for Harmon because he believed him to be safe and sane. At present, while there appears to be a strong liking in the Old Dominion among certain business men for the nomination of the Ohio Governor, there is also a very strong inclination towards other candidates, especially Wilson.

"Yes, I have already said that I was for Governor Harmon," Captain Lamb stated, "and I expect to remain for him to the last. He is safe and sane, and that is enough for me."

Among many persons Governor Harmon is looked upon as a safe old carriage horse and one who will do to tie to. Whether or not he will be leveled by the storm which is now blowing, the convention remains to be seen, but the loyalty of his supporters is hardly to be doubted. Especially among the older men—those who knew him in the days when he was Cleveland's Attorney-General—there is a very deep affection. The ties of the men who have been in public life since Cleveland reformed the country from the Republicans are strong; hence many of them have pleasant recollections of the days when Governor Harmon was the nation's chief lawyer.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Taylor-Cannon. Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—Charles C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil ceremony. The groom was for years connected with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The bride is a native of Happaianock county.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Charlottesville, Va., April 11.—The death of a young man, a son of Mr. C. Taylor, a well-to-do West End bachelor, and Miss Lizzie Cannon, of this city, were married last night at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church, by the Rev. C. Kelly, D. D., performing the civil